Flight summary: Thursday August 14, 2008

Today August 14, there is a huge tropical depression sitting right on top of Jeju. KMA issues warning of heavy rains of >100 mm rains per day through Sunday. JAO/CASA issue small aircraft warnings that include our little planes. All VFR flights were canceled due to heavy rains, high numbers of thunder strikes, and very low visibility.

Here is our flight schedule:
Today August 14 Flight was canceled.
Next flight days: Mon-Thu or August 18, 19, 20 and 21. All afternoons, from 3:30 - 6:00 PM. Weather expected to be good, without rains. But it is difficult to predict tropical island weathers.
